Employee Handbook

Document Version	1.0	Effective Date
Policy Owner	Human Resources	January 1, 2026

1. Welcome to NovaTech Solutions

This handbook provides employees with a general overview of workplace practices, employee responsibilities, benefits, and important company policies. Detailed rules may be maintained in separate policy documents. Where a dedicated policy exists, employees should refer to that policy for complete requirements.

2. Working Hours

The standard workweek is Monday through Friday. Employees are expected to work the hours agreed with their manager and comply with team-specific scheduling requirements. Business needs may occasionally require employees to work outside normal working hours.

3. Attendance and Punctuality

Employees are expected to attend work regularly and report on time. If an employee expects to be absent or delayed, they should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

4. Annual Leave

Permanent full-time employees are eligible for paid annual leave. The standard annual leave entitlement is 20 working days per calendar year. Unused annual leave may be carried forward subject to the rules defined in the NovaTech Solutions Leave Policy. Employees should refer to the Leave Policy for detailed carry-forward limits, approval rules, and expiration dates.

5. Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work due to illness should inform their manager as soon as reasonably possible. Paid sick leave is available to eligible employees. Detailed sick leave entitlement and documentation requirements are defined in the Leave Policy.

6. Remote Work

NovaTech Solutions supports flexible working arrangements where appropriate for the employee's role and business requirements. Remote work arrangements require manager approval. Detailed requirements are defined in the Remote Work Policy.

7. Business Travel

Employees may be required to travel for business purposes. Business travel should be approved before bookings are made. Reasonable and necessary business travel expenses may be reimbursed in accordance with the Travel and Expense Policy.

8. Information Security

Employees are responsible for protecting company information and systems. Company devices must be used in accordance with IT security requirements. Employees must not share passwords or confidential company information with unauthorized individuals.

9. Employee Benefits

NovaTech Solutions provides eligible employees with a range of benefits. These may include health insurance, life insurance, learning support, wellness initiatives, and retirement-related benefits. Eligibility and benefit limits are defined in the Employee Benefits Guide.

10. Workplace Conduct

Employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully. Harassment, discrimination, bullying, retaliation, and other inappropriate workplace behavior are not acceptable. Detailed behavioral requirements are defined in the Code of Conduct.

11. Conflicts of Interest

Employees should avoid situations where personal interests could conflict with the interests of NovaTech Solutions. Potential conflicts of interest should be disclosed to the employee's manager or Human Resources.

12. Company Property

Employees are responsible for company equipment issued to them. Company laptops, mobile devices, access cards, and other equipment should be protected from loss, theft, or unauthorized use.

13. Policy Compliance

Employees are expected to understand and follow applicable company policies. Failure to comply with company policies may result in corrective or disciplinary action.

14. Questions and Clarifications

Employees should contact their manager or Human Resources if they need clarification regarding this handbook or related company policies.
