Travel and Expense Policy

Document Version	1.1	Effective Date
Policy Owner	Finance and Human Resources	January 1, 2026

1. Purpose

This policy defines the requirements for business travel, expense approval, booking, reimbursement, and supporting documentation at NovaTech Solutions.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees who incur approved expenses while travelling or conducting business on behalf of NovaTech Solutions.

3. Travel Approval

All business travel must be approved by the employee's manager before travel arrangements are finalized. International travel also requires approval from the relevant department head. Employees should not make non-refundable bookings before required approvals are received.

4. Travel Booking

Employees should use company-approved booking channels whenever available. Travel arrangements should be reasonable, safe, and cost-effective.

5. Air Travel

Employees should normally book economy class for domestic and international flights. Premium economy may be approved for international flights exceeding 8 hours of scheduled flight time. Business class requires specific approval from a department head and should only be used in exceptional circumstances.

6. Rail Travel

Employees may use standard or business-class rail travel when it is reasonable for the business journey.

7. Hotel Accommodation

The standard reimbursement limit is INR 8,000 per night for domestic travel within India and USD 200 per night for international travel. Taxes charged by the hotel may be reimbursed in addition to these limits. Accommodation above the standard limit requires manager approval and a documented business justification.

8. Meals

The maximum daily meal reimbursement is INR 2,000 per day for domestic travel and USD 60 per day for international travel. Alcoholic beverages are not reimbursable unless specifically approved as part of an authorized business event.

9. Local Transportation

Reasonable transportation expenses such as taxi, rideshare, public transport, and airport transfers may be reimbursed when required for business travel. Luxury vehicle services are not normally reimbursable.

10. Personal Vehicle Use

Employees who use a personal vehicle for approved business travel may claim mileage reimbursement according to the reimbursement rate published by Finance. Normal commuting is not considered business travel and is not reimbursable.

11. Travel Insurance

Employees travelling internationally on approved business may be covered by the company's business travel insurance program.

12. Expense Receipts

Receipts are required for individual expenses of INR 1,000 or more for domestic travel. For international travel, receipts should be provided for expenses of USD 20 or more.

13. Expense Submission

Travel expenses should normally be submitted within 15 calendar days after completion of the business trip. Expense claims must include the business purpose and required supporting documents.

14. Currency Conversion

International expenses incurred in foreign currencies will be reimbursed using the conversion method accepted by the company's expense management process.

15. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Personal entertainment
- Personal shopping
- Traffic or parking fines
- Personal minibar charges
- Personal sightseeing
- Expenses for accompanying family members
- Unauthorized upgrades
- Other expenses unrelated to approved business activity

16. Combining Business and Personal Travel

Employees may combine business travel with personal travel if this does not increase the cost to NovaTech Solutions. Any additional cost associated with personal travel must be paid by the employee.

17. Travel Changes and Cancellations

Employees should notify their manager and the relevant booking provider as soon as possible if approved travel plans change.

18. Exceptions

Exceptions to this policy require approval from the employee's manager and, where appropriate, Finance or the relevant department head.

19. Questions

Employees should contact Finance or Human Resources if they require clarification regarding business travel or expense reimbursement.
